GUEST SPEAKERS

Yasmina Zellou International Financial Adviser, BFMI

Yasmina has been in Financial Services for over 10 years. After a long career working for pre-eminent International banks in London she relocated to Spain in 2015. Her mission is to provide comprehensive financial planning to expatriates to help them structure their finances in a tax efficient manner.

Tim Govaerts Regional Manager Costa del Sol, BFMI

Tim has worked as an independent financial adviser for approximately 10 years in the south of Spain. Before he took on the opportunity to look after the Blacktower office as Regional Manager in Marbella in 2013 he had a career with another leading Financial Services company where he successfully helped many expats with their finances.

Francesco Bertagnin Managing Director, Foresight Consultancy

Over the years Francesco has advised a very high number of clients from varying backgrounds on areas such as high net worth individuals relocating to Gibraltar or southern Spain to providing tax due diligence to a company floating on the London Stock Exchange. Francesco has also written tax articles in various publications and has spoken at tax conferences in a number of countries.
